Dear Mr. Spitzer:

I refer to our letter dated April 16, 2018, regarding the release of certain Department of State records under the Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA"), 5 U.S.C. § 552.

The review of eight documents responsive to your request has been completed and we have determined that one document may be released in full and seven documents may be released in part. The released material is enclosed.

An enclosure explains the FOIA exemptions and other grounds for withholding material. In some cases, two or more exemptions may apply to the same document. All non-exempt material that is reasonably segregable from exempt material has been released.

This completes our processing of your request. If you have any questions, please contact DOJ Trial Attorney Ryan Parker at 202-514-4336 or ryan.parker@usdoj.gov.

Sue,

Attached please find a slide presentation that I will give at a USG-sponsored roundtable on "Evaluating Strategic Engagement Programs," which will be held in Colorado Springs, 11-12 August. The roundtable, organized by USAF's Institute for National Security Studies (on behalf of DOD's Defense Threat Reduction Agency), will compare experiences of different organizations in engaging international expertise to help understand national and global security challenges. I have attached the invitation letter and preliminary agenda to provide further context.

I have been invited to talk about the experiences of INR's Global Futures Forum (GFF) program, drawing upon my personal knowledge gained from having helped to develop and manage this initiative from its inception in 2005 to the present. In addition to discussing lessons learned from workshops and online interaction, I will also provide a brief history and description of GFF so that the roundtable participants can have a better basis for evaluating these lessons.

RELEASE IN FULL

Good morning Mr. Morse and Mr. Chykirda,

I hope you're both doing well. The author, Mr. Farley, reached out to us today to inform us that if he does not hear an update on these articles from DOD, he will plan to publish by the end of the week. In his conversations with PA, he mentioned his First Amendment rights and this holding up his process.

While we greatly appreciate the two of you being very responsive since we have been in touch in late July, DOD has had these articles for 6 months and over a year respectively. Is there any update we could provide the author with today on this matter? I'll be speaking with him this afternoon, so would appreciate any update you could provide.

- Identifying the Start of Conflict and the 9-11 Attacks has been with DOD since October 2014
- Enhanced Interrogation, the Report on Rendition, Detention, and Interrogation, and the Return of Kriegsraison with DOD since May 16, 2015

Thank you very kindly and happy to discuss further if you would like.

Best,

Dear PA Colleagues,

I apologize for not replying yesterday, while we in DoD are not under the microscope like State is at the moment, we do have a lot going on.

Case 15-FR-0020, "Enhanced Interrogation," is still under review by the DoD Office of General Counsel (OGC) and the Office of the Under Secretary for Policy (OUSD/P). Given the subject matter, both a legal and policy chop are necessary. Both offices are aware of the time constraints, but I do not have an ETA at the moment.

Case 15-S-1964, "Identifying the Start of Conflict," is also under review by OGC and OUSD/P, as well as the Joint Staff, for the reasons described above. Daniel Chykirda is the action officer handling this case and he can provide more information.

If we can be of further assistance please feel free to contact us. Thank you.

Thanks for your patience on this. As below, we'll request that Levinger return to the original 2007 ground rules and refer to Ehrenreich as an unnamed "State Department analyst."

Quotes are fine with one caveat.

Please forgive the delay in closing this loop. I'm waiting for a final clarification from Rick (Ehrenreich) himself on one of the quotes.

I can tell you now that since he is still an active USG employee we and the Desk both think it best to return to the ground rules of the 2007 interview, which were to quote him as an unnamed State Department analyst. Author could describe him as "experienced" or similar as appropriate.

Quotes themselves look good pending the one clarification. Will get back to you as soon as I have it.

Thanks,

AF Colleagues:

In March 2007, INR/AF Analyst Frederick Ehrenreich conducted an interview on the 1994 Rwandan Genocide with Matthew Levinger of the Elliott School of International Affairs at GWU. At the time, Mr. Ehrenreich was seconded to be the Deputy National Intelligence Officer for Africa and had been granted clearance to speak to Mr. Levinger from his boss, National Intelligence Officer for Africa Johnnie Carson.

Levinger recently contacted Mr. Ehrenreich for permission to use various quotes for his article entitled "Why the U.S. Government Failed to Anticipate the Rwandan Genocide of 1994: Lessons for Early Warning Prevention", which is scheduled to run in Genocide Studies and Prevention.

Attached is Mr. Levinger's article, and we are asking you to review Mr. Ehrenreich's quotes, which are located on pages 9, 11, 12, 13, 14, and 15 and are highlighted.

We request your response by COB Monday, October 5.

RELEASE IN PART B6

Hi,

I'm trying to figure out if a paper I wrote and which has been accepted for publication needs to be cleared by PA. I work in the Global Criminal Justice office, but I submitted my paper before I started working here. Before GCJ I was a contractor in DRL/IRF, and two years ago I was an intern in GCJ, but the paper does not draw on any of the work I did at these positions. I was not employed in either position when I submitted the paper.

The paper is attached – it focuses on the Senate's report on the CIA's post-9/11 interrogation program as a form of transitional justice and truth-telling. It contains a disclaimer stating the following: "All opinions and analysis in this paper are my own and do not reflect the views of any other individual or organization. All errors are mine." It does not contain my job title or any reference to my employment with the Department of State.

Could you tell me if I need to clear this and if so, with what offices?

Thank you!

Tameka is teleworking this week, so in case you had just replied to her, I wanted to follow up to see if there has been any response from the PRB. The employee is being pushed by the journal where she is planning to publish to submit a final version and requests an expedited review.

Thanks for any update you can provide!

Best,
Katie

Good morning Alden and Behar,

Checking in – have you received any updates from the PRB? This is actually my first case where an employee did not remove what was requested of them. Its interesting to see what the PRB's response will be.

Thank you,
Tameka

Hi Alden and Behar,

We request an expedited review with the CIA's PRB for [REDACTED] revision (pg. 32) to Facing an Ugly Truth: The Senate's Report on CIA Torture as Truth-Telling. The author notes that the information was pulled from media reports and with her attributing the information to the media and providing appropriate footnotes, she hopes that the PRB will agree to approve the revision for publication.

Additional details are noted in her email below. Please let us know if it would be possible for to speak with B6 the PRB reviewer.

Thank you.
